

International English-Teaching Master Program in China Studies (Scholarship Opportunity available)

About Us

The international Master Program in China Studies at Chinese Culture University, located in Yang-Ming-Shan, Taipei city (Northern Taiwan), is one of the best to offer an English-taught master program in China Studies in Taiwan. The program is designed to provide graduates with tangible and combinative knowledge in terms of the diversity and complexity of China's transformation and its impact locally, regionally and globally. For international students, this program aims specifically to broaden their horizons and help them develop a unique portfolio of knowledge and research of contemporary China related affairs with a global outlook.

We are part of CCU's College of Social Science, and draw on English-speaking faculty throughout the campus.

Besides, we also provide excellent learning experiences to study Mandarin at the same time in CCU campus.

For the future planning, students in this program will not only have chance to enhance their understanding of their roles toward China and the whole world but also make them suitable for positions in government, research institutions, business, education, community organizations, media and other cultural institutions.

Program Structure

Each student in the Program must complete 34 credits, including all required courses and some elective courses. Besides, a written master thesis is required for the degree. A TOEFL score of 500 points or above is also required for graduation.

Required credits are as follows:

- Research Approaches and Methodology of Social Science
- Research Design and Thesis Writing
- Seminar on Cross-Strait Relations
- Economic Studies on Mainland China
- Political Studies on Mainland China
- Social Studies on Mainland China
